GEORGIA FRONTIERE

OWNER/CHAIRMAN (1979-2008)

Georgia Frontiere created a remarkable legacy. She was recognized as one of America's most accomplished business-women and an exemplary humanitarian. Born in St. Louis, Georgia later returned to her hometown as chairman and owner of the St. Louis Rams.

Georgia competed and won on the field and in the boardroom. An astute team leader, Georgia led the Rams for 29 seasons with a winning tradition. As the First Lady of Sports in her native St. Louis, Frontiere led one of pro football's great franchises. The Rams were NFC Champions in 1979, 1999 and 2001. In 2000, the St. Louis Rams won Super Bowl XXXIV. Georgia was a goodwill ambassador taking the team to England in 1987, to Japan in 1989 and to Germany in 1990 where the Rams won all three contests and were named our nation's American Bowl Champions.

Three words describe Georgia best: courage, compassion and commitment. Georgia had the courage to fight life's greatest battles, to never give up and the compassion to help others. Concerned for former players' families, Georgia supported the "Pre-'59ers," the 1000-plus NFL players who left the playing field before 1959 and did not qualify for the league's pension plan. She started the "Dire Need Fund" for the Los Angeles Chapter of the NFL Alumni Association which led to the creation of a league-wide NFL fund.

An accomplished golfer, Georgia often played in NFL Alumni events and was honorary chair for the 2003 event in St. Louis.

Georgia also was the honorary chair for "A Taste of Italy," an event that raised $125,000 for Show Me Aquatics and Fitness, an inclusive organization assisting anyone from Olympic hopefuls to those with special needs.

Georgia was also committed to helping those in need though Variety – The Children's Charity, The Fulfillment Fund, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and other charitable organizations.

The Rams Foundation, a dream of Georgia's from the moment she announced the franchise was relocating, has donated more than $6 million in grants, merchandise and tickets to charities in the St. Louis area since the foundation was created in 1997.

Having grown up during World War II, Georgia remembered the young Americans who gave their lives fighting side by side with members of Great Britain's Royal Air Force. Together with actors Charlton Heston and James Stewart, Georgia chaired the efforts to raise funds to help construct the American Air Museum in Duxford, England. More than 30,000 names are etched on the walls of the Georgia Frontiere Gallery in the museum.

The museum, which houses many of the aircraft and other pieces from World War II, commemorates the American airmen who fought in the European aerial conflict. The museum opening in 1997 was dedicated by Queen Elizabeth and attended by Prince Philip and Heston. Georgia chaired the rededication of the Air Museum in 2002 with former President George H.W. Bush and Prince Charles.

Georgia's passions were music, poetry and her faith.

An accomplished soprano, she performed with the Beverly Hills Pops Orchestra, the St. Louis Symphony (an "Evening with Lerner and Lowe"), and was the featured soloist for the Easter Sunrise Services at the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles. Parishioners attending Midnight Mass at St. Roch's Church in St. Louis were captivated by Georgia's stunning renditions of "Ave Maria" and "Oh Holy Night."

Her love of music and opera inspired Georgia to become a member of the Golden Horseshoe of the New York Metropolitan Opera and she was a member of the Founders of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera board. Georgia also funded scholarships for young students of the performing arts, allowing those students to pursue their educations.

Youngsters with other dreams have been beneficiaries of Georgia's more than $1 million commitment to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization which sponsors more than 2,000 high school students who have college potential but whose financial opportunities are limited.

On January 18, 2008, Georgia passed away surrounded by her family. She is survived by Earle Weatherwax, her companion of 20 years, her children, Lucia Rodriguez and Chip Rosenbloom, and six grandchildren. She will be deeply missed.

GEORGIA AT A GLANCE

ON GEORGIA'S WATCH

• Of the 28 NFL teams in existence in 1980, the Rams are among seven who have participated in at least three Super Bowls.

• Since 1979, the Rams have won one Super Bowl championship, two NFC championships, and five division championships.

• Since 1979, the Rams have qualified for the playoffs 13 times and participated in 24 playoff contests. During that span the team has won at least 10 games 12 times.

• The Rams are one of four NFL teams (New England, New York Giants, and Pittsburgh Steelers) to participate in the Super Bowl in each of the last two decades.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

• Georgia played a principal part in the "Bikes For Kids" program, which annually provides bicycles for children of low-income families. Since the program's inception in 1996, almost 2,000 youngsters have received bicycles.

• The Rams annually support the United Way. Georgia appeared in a United Way public service announcement in 1997 and helped orchestrate the 25th anniversary of the NFL/United Way Partnership with a series of local activities in 1998. She was a member of the Alexis de Tocquerville Society for her contributions to the United Way, and served on the United Way Board of Directors.

TRIBUTES

• Georgia was honored by St. Louis Variety, The Children's Charity, as its Woman of the Year for 2005.

• The American Heart Association honored Georgia, along with veteran news reporter Walter Cronkite, with the Missourian Award.

• The St. Louis Ambassadors named Georgia "Sportsperson of the Year."

• St. Louis' Herbert Hoover Boys & Girls Club awarded her the National Service to Youth Award for 2005.

• Georgia was named the "First Lady" of the St. Louis "Old Newsboys' Day" and was inducted into the Newsboys' Hall of Fame.

• The Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council in California presented Georgia, the council's founder, with a special award to show its appreciation. The organization provides bulletproof vests, canine units, vehicles, and other essential equipment to law enforcement. She founded Project 999, which has raised nearly $1 million to provide financial support for injured or fallen officers and their families.

• Georgia was a recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor.

• Georgia held an honorary doctorate in philanthropy from Pepperdine University in Malibu, Calif.

THE BOARDROOM

• Georgia was on the board of the St. Louis Herbert Hoover Boys & Girls Club.

• She was on the Board of Governors of Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

• Georgia served on the boards of Laumeier Sculpture Park and Cinema St. Louis.

• She was on the board of the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild.

• Georgia served on the board of the St. Louis Symphony and the St. Louis Zoo.

• She was a board member of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America and a national board member of the American Foundation for AIDS Research.

• Georgia was a national board member of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of Great Britain, which provides free ambulance and emergency services throughout the United Kingdom.

• She was on the board of Wings of Hope, a humanitarian organization that provides air transportation to those requiring emergency medical attention and supplies in the United States and in some of the most remote areas of the world.

THOUGHTS & REFLECTIONS ON GEORGIA

"Our mom was a beautiful person who lived an extraordinary life. She put up a courageous and brave fight. Thanks to her doctors and her spirit we were blessed with more time with her than expected.

"Our mom was dedicated to being more than the owner of a football team. She loved the Rams' players, coaches and staff. The warmth and generosity she exuded will never be forgotten.

"She will be missed by those who loved her and will be remembered as a kind and generous person. We will love her forever."

- Statement from Georiga's daughter, Lucia Rodriguez and son, Chip Rosenbloom

"Georgia Frontiere was instrumental in bringing professional football back to her native Missouri. She was a devoted mother, a passionate owner and an advocate for the less fortunate. I always enjoyed my time with Georgia and her family. She was a good friend and business partner. She will be dearly missed."

- Statement from Stan Kroenke, Vice Chairman/Owner

"It's been my privilege for twenty-eight years to work for a loyal, generous, and supportive owner who was totally committed to her football team. This is an enormous loss for me and for the Rams' organization. All of our prayers and sympathy go out to her family."

- Statement from John Shaw, Senior Advisor/Owners' Representative

"Georgia loved people and laughed often. She engaged herself in all of our lives and looked for the best in others and gave her best to all...She made the world a better place for all of us. Thank you, Georgia, for sharing your life and your Rams with me."

- Statement from Jay Zygmunt, Former President of Football Operations/General Manager

"Georgia was a wonderful person and owner. She was kind, generous and concerned with all of us who loved or worked for her beloved Rams. Whether it was dinner and a movie or the thoughtful and festive holiday party for Rams players and staff, Georgia made you feel like part of her family. The Rams are known for their diversity epitomized by their female owner and Georgia's primary criteria for her employees regardless of gender, race or ethnicity was passion for her team. She will be missed."

- Statement from Bob Wallace, General Counsel

"Georgia Frontiere loved life, and its adventures, more than anyone I knew. She was a remarkable woman. She was eccentric and colorful and unpredictable and never dull. And what a life. What an improbable and unimaginable life. If you wrote a book about all of her days and nights, people would dismiss it as fiction, except that it happened.

"No wonder Georgia didn't want to give up, didn't want to leave, didn't want the journey, the escapade, to end. The doctors told Georgia's family months ago that she didn't have much time left, but she battled on with as much toughness as the roughest Rams player.

"She outlived the predictions, outlasted the doctors, and extended that wonderful life…

"In the time I spent with her, she was kind and generous with people. She did a lot of things behind the scenes to help various causes; one time she heard that a church in the city needed a roof, and she paid for it. And there were at least a hundred stories like that, stories that never got out."

- Excerpts from "Georgia gave her hometown an NFL team – and a lot more," Bernie Miklasz, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, January 19, 2008

"Georgia was unique in her life as wife, mother and the owner of her Rams (that's how she referred to her beloved football team). Her love was extended and touched so many...That will be missed immensely!"

- Statement from Jack Youngblood, Former Rams Defensive End and Hall of Fame Player

"It's an end of an era. She was the only active woman owner in sports and she took her team to the Super Bowl three times. That's hard enough to do just once. She cared about the players. I remember when she came back from Europe with a couple outfits for my daughters, who were young kids. It was not something that your average owner would do."

- Statement from Vince Ferragamo, Former Rams Quarterback

"[Susan and I] would like to offer our deepest condolences to Georgia's family and to the Ram family as well. Saying goodbye is never easy for us, especially when it involves the special people in our lives. We will truly miss Georgia; she was one of a kind."

- Statement from Merlin Olsen, Former Rams Defensive Tackle and Hall of Fame Player

"My first experience with Georgia was motherly. When I was drafted in 1984, the next day Georgia sent a bouquet of roses to my mother, promising her that she would take care of her son. From that point on, I was considered one of Georgia's sons, and was proud of that fact. I think she was outstanding for the Rams, as well as the National Football League. She will be truly missed."

- Statement from Isaac Bruce, Former Rams Wide Receiver

"Georgia Frontiere was the first lady of sports in her native St. Louis.

"She returned pro football to St. Louis and brought the city its first Super Bowl championship. She had a deep love for her Rams and all the people who contributed to the success of her franchise and the NFL, especially former players.

"Her philanthropic work was legendary and wide ranging, but her special focus was retired NFL players and the arts. She was a talented and wonderful person."

- Statement from Roger Goodell, NFL Commissioner

"Georgia Frontiere brought a professional football team back to her hometown of St. Louis. Her Rams have almost always fielded entertaining teams – and their two trips to the Super Bowl were occasions of great civic celebration. For that, she earned the lasting gratitude of local sports fans.

"Even more of us, though, will remember Georgia for her big heart. Her Rams Foundation, a model of its kind, has supported the programs of hundreds of local organizations dedicated to kid's health, literacy, recreation, and youth football."

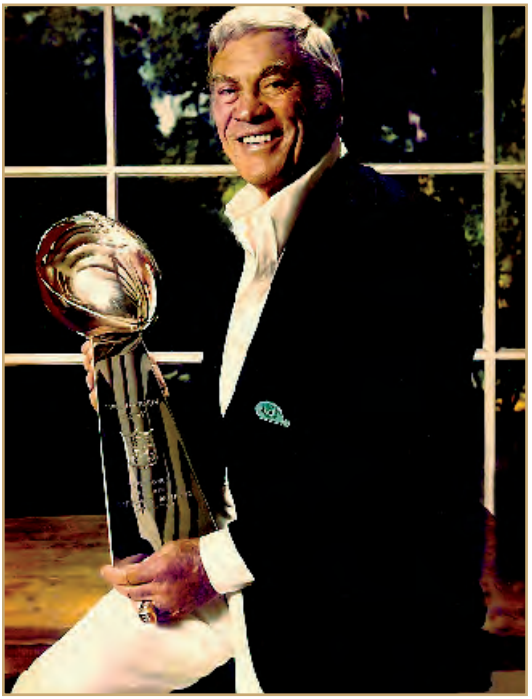
CARROLL ROSENBLOOM

OWNER COLTS, RAMS (1953-79)



Carroll Rosenbloom was a legendary and towering figure among NFL owners, who left a mighty legacy and served as a powerful inspiration for his wife, Georgia, and their children, Chip and Lucia.

Rosenbloom was an architect of the modern NFL, which has become the most-watched, anticipated, and admired sports entity in American history. During his dynamic, 26-year NFL career, Rosenbloom compiled a remarkable 226-116-8 record, with a winning percentage of .660, the greatest won-loss achievement of any NFL owner.

Rosenbloom came to the NFL in 1953 and took the Baltimore Colts from the bottom of the league to the top, winning world championships in 1957, '58, and in 1970 (Super Bowl V). The Colts also won an NFL title in 1968 and played in Super Bowl III.

From 1957 through 1978, Rosenbloom teams endured just one losing season and posted a combined record of 210-85-7, a .710 winning percentage. From 1964 through 1978, the Colts and Rams were 156-49-7 for a .760 percentage.

"C.R.'s" indelible mark on the NFL was evident not only by his teams' on-field success but by his vision and boldness.

Rosenbloom was one of three owners (Pittsburgh's Art Rooney and Cleveland's Art Modell followed) who agreed to move their franchises to the American Football Conference to ensure a balanced league after the NFL merged with the American Football League in 1970. Rosenbloom also was an architect in the planning and execution of the league's national television contracts and he made the most revolutionary move of all, trading franchises, the Colts for the Los Angeles Rams, in 1972. The Rams, under Rosenbloom's steady hand, won six consecutive NFC West championships (1973-78).

Rosenbloom passed away in 1979, survived by his wife Georgia, their children Lucia and Chip, and Suzanne, Danny, and Steve from his previous marriage.

CHIP ROSENBLOOM

OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Chip Rosenbloom is a rare hybrid of creative energy who combines leadership of a marquee National Football League franchise with groundbreaking filmmaking projects.

As Owner/Chairman and managing partner of the St. Louis Rams, Chip is following in the footsteps of his legendary parents, Carroll Rosenbloom and Georgia Frontiere, in leading a highly-successful NFL team that has been a part of Chip's family for more than five decades.

After playing an important, behind-the-scenes role in the Rams organization for several years, Rosenbloom and his sister, Lucia Rodriguez, succeeded their mother, who guided the Rams from 1979 until she passed away in January of 2008. Georgia took the reins of the Rams following the death of her husband, Carroll Rosenbloom, an NFL icon who owned the Baltimore Colts and Los Angeles Rams over a 26-year period.

Following his initial season as an NFL owner, Chip Rosenbloom oversaw a sweeping reorganization of the Rams' front office. Rosenbloom promoted Billy Devaney to General Manager and named Kevin Demoff Executive Vice President of Football Operations/Chief Operating Officer. Working closely with Devaney, Lucia and Stan Kroenke, Rosenbloom also helped coordinate the coaching search that resulted in former New York Giants defensive coordinator Steve Spagnuolo being named the 25th head coach in the 72-year history of the Rams.

Beyond football, Rosenbloom has built a highly-successful career in the motion picture industry over the last 20 years. As founder and owner of Open Pictures, Chip has become one of Hollywood's most active and innovative filmmakers. Rosenbloom has written, produced or directed more than 20 feature films and documentaries. His projects currently in limited release include "Fuel," the multi-award winning (including Sundance) documentary on alternative energy, and the Broadway stage production of August Wilson's "Radio Golf," honored with a 2007 Tony Nomination as Best Play.

Rosenbloom also produced and wrote all three films of the celebrated "Shiloh" trilogy based on Phyllis Reynolds Naylor's best-selling novels about a young boy's attempt to rescue an abused dog. Nominated for a Humanitas Award, the first Shiloh film which Chip also directed was so successful that Warner Bros. ordered two more Shiloh features, which became a significant franchise for the studio, a critic's delight and a multi-million unit DVD in the United States and 27 countries world-wide.

Rosenbloom's upcoming projects include "Crossed," directed by Chip and based on an original screenplay by Chip, Bruce Taylor and Rod Taylor. Also, a soon-to-be-announced major studio adaptation of Philip K. Dick's "Flow My Tears, The Policeman Said," as well as the independent production of Dick's "Radio Free Albermuth." In addition, "Tone," a documentary about the history of the electric guitar and the re-release of the International Press Academy award-winning "Reckless Indifference." "Alice Upside-Down" starring Alyson Stoner, Lucas Grabeel, Penny Marshall and Luke Perry was just released on DVD and "Girl in the Park" starring Sigourney Weaver, Kate Bosworth and Keri Russell, directed by Pulitzer Prize-winner David Auburn, is due out this fall from the Weinstein Company.

Rosenbloom is a graduate of USC Film School. He began his film career at Aaron Spelling Productions and later worked in development for Mace Neufeld Productions. Soon after, Chip wrote and produced his first theatrical feature, "Instant Karma," a movie co-produced and co-written with Bruce Taylor. The picture starred Craig Sheffer and David Cassidy and was released theatrically by MGM to near-unanimous praise. Chip followed that film a year later with "Across the Tracks," which marked the first staring role for Brad Pitt and won awards at the Houston and Philadelphia film festivals.

Chip sits on a number of boards, including the Fulfillment Fund, a mentoring and scholarship charity based in Los Angeles; the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America, the Los Angeles County High School for the Performing Arts, and Variety-The Children's Charity. Chip and his wife, Kathleen, are major donors and President's council members of Feeding America, America's largest hunger-relief organization.

Chip and Kathleen live in Los Angeles with their children, Alexander and Olivia.

OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN

E. Stanley Kroenke's emergence as a member of Rams ownership was critical in the effort to return professional football to St. Louis in 1995, and his real-estate development expertise was instrumental in the creation of Rams Park, now known as Russell Training Center, as a premier NFL training facility.

Completed in June 1996, the Russell Training Center sits on 20 acres in St. Louis County minutes west of Lambert-St. Louis International Airport. The facility includes three natural grass outdoor practice fields, an indoor practice facility, and 90,000 square feet for football operations and administration.

Kroenke is the owner of the Denver Nuggets of the National Basketball Association and the Colorado Avalanche of the National Hockey League, franchises he purchased in 2000. Kroenke Sports Enterprises, Mr. Kroenke's Denver-based company, also owns the National Lacrosse League's Colorado Mammoth, the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer, and a one-third interest in the Arena Football League's Colorado Crush with Denver Broncos owner Pat Bowlen and Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway.

The Avalanche has won a record nine division titles in Denver and won the Stanley Cup in 2001. The Nuggets are one of only four NBA teams to make the playoffs in each of the past six seasons. The Crush was crowned champion of the AFL in 2005 and the Mammoth, which has made the playoffs in each of its six seasons, won the NLL championship in 2006.

Kroenke also holds a significant stake in Arsenal FC of the English Premier League (soccer), one of the most successful clubs in the world. Kroenke owns 28.3 percent of the club.

The Pepsi Center in Denver, also owned by Kroenke, hosted the 2001 NHL All-Star game, the 2005 NBA All-Star game, the 2009 NLL All-Star game and the 2008 Democratic National Convention.

In 2004, Kroenke launched Altitude Sports & Entertainment. The 24-hour regional sports network is home to the Nuggets, Avalanche, Mammoth and Rapids, and reaches millions of viewers in the Rocky Mountain Region. In April 2007, Kroenke opened the largest soccer-specific complex in the world, Dick's Sporting Goods Park. Kroenke has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs. In February 2009, Kroenke was enshrined into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. Joining him in the class of 2009 was former Rams defensive end Grant Wistrom.

E. Stanley Kroenke, named after baseball legends Enos Slaughter and Stan Musial, was born in Cole Camp, Mo., and grew up in Mora, Mo. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, an award-winning documentary producer, and a son, Josh, an executive with the Denver Nuggets.

LUCIA RODRIGUEZ

OWNER/PARTNER
CHAIR OF THE RAMS FOUNDATION/ COMMUNITY OUTREACH

For Lucia Rodriguez, life has been about family, education, philanthropy and football. In her role as Owner/Partner and Chair of the Rams Foundation/Community Outreach, Lucia has incorporated those guiding principles into her leadership of the St. Louis Rams as she continues a family legacy that began more than 50 years ago.

Lucia's father, Carroll Rosenbloom, was a trailblazing owner, first with the Baltimore Colts during the era of Johnny Unitas and later the Los Angeles Rams, who were a dominant NFL team during Rosenbloom's tenure. Her mother, Georgia, was an equally remarkable figure, taking over the team upon her husband's death in 1979 and guiding the Rams through the next three decades.

Upon Georgia's passing in January of 2008, Lucia and her brother, Chip Rosenbloom, assumed majority ownership of the team. In her first season as owner, Lucia made an immediate impact in the St. Louis community assisting various non-profits, while also joining Chip in overseeing football and business matters. Following the 2008 season, Lucia was involved in the head coaching search and interview process, which culminated in the hiring of Steve Spagnuolo. She was also instrumental in the restructuring of the Rams' front office.

At her introductory press conference, Lucia announced the formation of "Team Georgia" to participate in the Komen St. Louis Race for the Cure, which is one of the largest breast cancer fundraising walks in the world. Because philanthropy was such an integral part of her mother, Lucia felt it was a fitting way to celebrate her mother's life and help others – something Georgia would have wanted. The extended Rams family – from staff to sponsors to fans – responded to Lucia's call and raised more than $23,000 for breast cancer research during "Team Georgia's" initial year.

Lucia also built upon her mother's support of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital by hosting a memorial "Georgia's Drive Fore the Kids" dinner and golf tournament, which raised more than $185,000 to enable St. Jude to continue its internationally recognized pioneering work in finding cures and saving children with cancer and other catastrophic diseases. After the tournament, Lucia made a trip to Memphis to visit the children who are receiving treatment at the hospital.

During the season, Lucia led an effort to recognize outstanding local volunteers dedicated to improving the community. The recognition program, named the "Georgia Frontiere Community Quarterback Awards," granted $20,000 to local non-profits in honor of their volunteering service.

Variety the Children's Charity of St. Louis has also received support from Lucia and her brother, both of whom sit on the group's board. In addition to hosting their annual "Bikes for Kids" program, which provides new bicycles to children in need, Lucia also served as honorary chair of Variety's Fashion Show and provided Rams player and cheerleader assistance. Lucia also sits on the board of United Way of Greater St. Louis and has served on the fundraising committee of St. Roch parish and school in St. Louis. Additionally, she has served as the honorary chair of fundraising events for Wings of Hope and Dance St. Louis.

She made numerous other charitable appearances during her first year of ownership, including assisting the Urban League in handing out turkey dinners to low-income families prior to Thanksgiving and hosting more than 3,000 underprivileged children who attended the team's "Project Angel Tree" holiday party at the Edward Jones Dome. She also visited a local school with players and cheerleaders to speak on the importance of literacy and helped in the groundbreaking of a new multi-purpose athletic facility for Sumner High School and the historic Ville neighborhood in the city of St. Louis.

Lucia is married to Lupe Rodriguez. The couple has three sons, William, Stuart and Andrew, and a daughter, Lauren. Will was a placekicker at Lindenwood University and currently plays for the River City Rage of the Arena League. He also achieved All-American status for his kicking prowess at the semi-pro level. Will works in the Rams scouting department and lives with his wife, Laura, in St. Louis.

JOHN SHAW

SENIOR ADVISOR/OWNERS' REPRESENTATIVE

John Shaw serves as Senior Advisor/Owners' Representative for the Rams. In this role, Shaw advises and consults with team owners Chip Rosenbloom, Lucia Rodriguez and Stan Kroenke, and represents the Rams on virtually all league matters as well as other affairs significant to the team. Shaw took the position on December 24, 2008 when he stepped down as the team's president.

Shaw is a veteran of 29 NFL seasons, all with the Rams, and had been the team's president since 1994. In that capacity, Shaw served as chief counsel to owner Georgia Frontiere and was a key figure in all major issues facing the franchise, including the team's bold move from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Shaw also has been at the forefront of many important events in the NFL, including trades, negotiations, and involvement in issues that have changed the course of the Rams and the NFL.

Shaw played an instrumental role in the Rams' championship run in 1999, which ended with a 23-17 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. He was part of a front office that jump-started the team's championship run as he made the most significant trade in franchise history and one which will long be remembered in the NFL. The Rams gave up second- and fifth-round draft choices to the Indianapolis Colts for running back Marshall Faulk, a player who would lead the Rams to the Super Bowl and into the next millennium, a period when the Rams were the most dangerous and explosive team in sports. Faulk is a certain future Hall of Fame inductee.

Shaw engineered a bold trade a decade earlier when Rams running back Eric Dickerson was sent to the Colts for three first- and three second-round draft choices. In a different setting Shaw similarly overcame obstacles and maneuvered through difficult situations to move the Rams from Los Angeles to St. Louis in 1995.

Shaw's vision and grasp of complex issues are known throughout football. As a member of the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, he was a significant contributor to the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players Association that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993 and was a strong voice in the 2006 negotiations that concluded with an agreement.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Shaw moved to San Diego as a youngster, attended high school there, and graduated as class valedictorian from the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor degree. Shaw is a member of the California Bar. John is married (Lori), and has a daughter, Alexx.

BILLY DEVANEY

GENERAL MANAGER

NFL Year: 25
Rams Year: 2

Billy Devaney was named General Manager of the Rams on December 24, 2009. As General Manager, Devaney is responsible for the football operation of the team and oversees all player personnel decisions, including the NFL Draft, acquisition of free agents, player trades and other personnel transactions. Devaney formerly served as the Rams' Executive Vice President of Player Personnel since February 2008.

Devaney hit the ground running when he was promoted to General Manger, leading the search for the Rams new head coach which concluded with the hiring of former New York Giants' defensive coordinator Steve Spagnuolo on January 17.

In his first few months as General Manager, Devaney revamped the Rams college and pro personnel departments.

Devaney helped guide the Rams in an active offseason as he and his staff franchised free safety Oshiomogho Atogwe and worked to add or retain four key players in the first two weeks of the free agency period. Devaney and his staff signed starting center Jason Brown from the Baltimore Ravens on the first day of free agency before re-signing unrestricted free agent cornerback Ron Bartell and adding solid contributors in safety James Butler from the Giants and fullback Mike Karney from the New Orleans Saints.

A veteran of 24 NFL seasons, Devaney has helped build three Super Bowl teams, including a Washington Redskins team that won Super Bowl XXII, and has been associated with teams that have played in 19 playoff games.

Devaney came to the Rams as Executive Vice President of Player Personnel in February 2008 after two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons. He served as Senior Personnel Executive in 2006 and as Assistant General Manager in 2007.

From 2004-05, Devaney served as a consultant and analyst for the CBS Sports NFL pregame show. Prior to working at CBS, Devaney was Pro Personnel Assistant with the San Francisco 49ers from 2001-03. The 49ers reached the playoffs in two of Devaney's three seasons with the team. Devaney spent 11 seasons (1990-2000) with the San Diego Chargers as Director of Player Personnel. In his position with the Chargers, Devaney was responsible for all player acquisitions, directing the team's annual draft of collegiate players and acquiring veteran free agents. Devaney helped the Chargers to their only trip to a Super Bowl as San Diego reached Super Bowl XXIX in 1994.

Devaney joined the Chargers after seven seasons (1983-90) as a scout for the Washington Redskins. In Washington, Devaney worked with Hall of Fame head coach Joe Gibbs and veteran NFL executive Bobby Beathard. Devaney joined the team as a part-time college scout in 1979 before becoming a full-time scout in 1983. In his seven seasons with the Redskins, Devaney experienced 10 playoff games, including Super Bowl XVII in 1983 and Super Bowl XXII in 1988.

Devaney originally attended Biscayne College in Miami, Fla., before earning his bachelor of arts degree in history from Elon College in North Carolina. Devaney was a three-year letterman for Elon at strong safety and team captain as a senior. He also lettered two years as a third baseman on the baseball team and was the president of ITK fraternity for two years. Devaney enjoys surfing and is an avid runner. He has competed in multiple Boston Marathons with a personal best of 2:48:58. Devaney was honored this year by being named Grand Marshall for the 40th celebration of the St. Louis Saint Patrick's Day Parade.

Devaney and his wife, Deirdre, have a daughter, Kaitlin, and a son, Tyler.

KEVIN DEMOFF

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/ CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

NFL Year: 5
Rams Year: 1

Kevin Demoff was named the Rams' Executive Vice President of Football Operations & Chief Operating Officer in January. In this capacity, Demoff serves as a liaison to ownership on all operational matters.

"We are very excited that Kevin has chosen to join the Rams," owner/chairman Chip Rosenbloom said in announcing Demoff's hiring. "His experience, intelligence and personality will add greatly to our front office team."

Demoff works closely with General Manager Billy Devaney and Head Coach Steve Spagnuolo to develop the Club's strategic plan for player signings and player acquisitions. As the Club's chief negotiator, Demoff is responsible for the Rams' salary cap planning and compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement. Demoff also partners with Devaney and Spagnuolo in aspects of the team's football operations.

Demoff oversees the Rams' entire business operations, including marketing and sales, finance, administration, ticketing and community relations. Since arriving in St. Louis, Demoff has been responsible for reorganizing the Club's business efforts with a focus on delivering a better overall experience for Rams' fans and increasing the Club's presence in the greater St. Louis community.

Prior to joining the Rams, Demoff spent the previous four seasons (2005-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as a consultant before being named Senior Assistant in 2006. In this capacity, Demoff assisted General Manager Bruce Allen in contract negotiations, salary cap management, strategic planning and both college and pro scouting. During his tenure with the Buccaneers, the team captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007 while posting a winning record in three of his four seasons.

From 2001-04, Demoff served as Director of Football Operations for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League. Demoff helped direct the team to its first-ever playoff berth and in his final three seasons with the club, the Avengers posted a record of 28-18, third-best in the Arena Football League, qualifying for the playoffs in each of those seasons.

Demoff served as an editorial consultant for Fox Sport Net's "NFL This Morning" from 1999-2003, helping write and edit show copy and providing detailed research for the talent. From 1999-2000, Demoff worked at Broadband Sports, designing and developing NFL team websites and newsletters.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif., Demoff received a bachelors' degree in history from Dartmouth College in 1999 and a Masters in Business Administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth in 2006.

Kevin and his wife Jennifer, have two children – a daughter, Claire and son, Owen.

STEVE SPAGNUOLO — HEAD COACH

College: Springfield College (Mass.)
NFL Coaching Year: 11
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Steve Spagnuolo was introduced as the 25th head coach in the 72-year history of the Rams in January and had little time to get acquainted. In less than a month, Spagnuolo had assembled a staff of 19 assistants and charted a course for an offseason that would move virtually nonstop through free agency, the draft and training camp.

Spagnuolo came to the Rams after a stellar career as defensive coordinator of the New York Giants and was the architect of the defense that shut down the high-octane New England Patriots in the Giants' stunning 17-14 win in Super Bowl XLII. He was with New York for two seasons, after serving on the defensive staff of the Philadelphia Eagles for eight years. Steve coached in the college ranks for 16 years before joining the Eagles in 1999.

Along the way Spagnuolo adopted his formula for success, built on what he calls the Four Pillars: Faith. Character. Core Values. Team First.

He relied on those attributes early in the 2007 season, Spagnuolo's first as the Giants' defensive coordinator. Having given up 80 points in a 0-2 start to the regular season, Spagnuolo met with the defensive players before Week 3.

Michael Strahan, the Giants' future Hall of Fame defensive end, remembered the moment.

"Spags came into the room and said, 'I want you guys to trust and believe in the system. Believe in the game plan and what I'm telling you to do. I know we haven't had as much success as we'd like, but the system works. Trust it. I want you to know that I would not trade any player in here for anybody else. I want to do this with you guys.'

"For us," said Strahan, "that made us feel like, 'This guy cares for us. This guy will go to battle for us. This guy will stand up for us.' We turned it around. We trusted him and it worked."

The Giants recovered to win 15 of their next 18 regular-season and postseason games and capped their improbable run with the dramatic Super Bowl victory over the previously unbeaten Patriots.

The win came against a team that had set a league record with 589 points in the regular season. Spagnuolo's defense hit the Pats' Tom Brady a dozen times and sacked him five times in an epic defensive effort, which held the most explosive team in NFL history to 137.3 yards less than its season average. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a single gain over 19 yards. New England, which had averaged almost 37 points per game during the season, had to settle for a mere 14.

The Giants held the league's top three offensive teams, Green Bay (2), Dallas (3), and New England (1) to a total of 51 points during their postseason run.

Strahan retired after the 2007 season and the Giants lost Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora to a knee injury in the 2008 preseason, but Spagnuolo's defense still managed to increase its effectiveness. The team improved from seventh to fifth in total defense and won the NFC East with a 12-4 record.

In 37 regular-season and postseason games under Spagnuolo, the Giants' defense allowed opponents 17 points or fewer in 19 games. New York was 19-0 in those games and 17-2 in games where opposing quarterbacks had passer ratings lower than 75.0.

Spagnuolo was the Male Scholar Athlete of the Year at Springfield (Mass.) College in 1982, then took a graduate assistant's position at the University of Massachusetts. In 1983, Steve's first pro football experience came as a pro personnel intern with the Washington Redskins.

The Redskins won the NFC title in 1983 and a berth in Super Bowl XVIII. The head coach was future Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs and a scout on the Redskins' staff was Billy Devaney, now the Rams' General Manager.

"I did the internship with the Redskins, got a taste for pro football and always had that in the back of my mind," said Spagnuolo.

The Redskins' experience behind him, Spagnuolo returned to the collegiate level as defensive line and special teams coach at Lafayette College in Easton, Pa., from 1984-86. Steve was at the University of Connecticut as defensive backs coach from 1987-89 before adding defensive coordinator duties from 1990-91.

In 1992, Spagnuolo made a second foray into professional football, coaching the defensive line and special teams for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League of American Football. After the spring in Europe, Spagnuolo briefly was a scout for the San Diego Chargers in 1993. Spagnuolo then moved to the University of Maine, serving first as defensive backs coach in 1993 before becoming the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach in 1994.

Positions as defensive backs coach at Rutgers (1994-95) and at Bowling Green (1996-97) were next. In 1998, Spagnuolo coached another season of pro football with the Frankfurt Galaxy of the renamed NFL Europe League. Spagnuolo served as the Galaxy's defensive coordinator/linebackers coach and under his tutelage four of the Galaxy's six linebackers and nine of the 11 defensive starters went on to play in the NFL. The Galaxy defense ranked second in the league in total defense, helping the team to an 8-2 record and a World Bowl appearance.

Steve joined the Philadelphia Eagles in 1999, as a defensive assistant/quality control coach under respected defensive coordinator Jim Johnson, working specifically with safeties. Spagnuolo was named defensive backs coach in 2001 and linebackers coach in 2004 before joining the New York Giants in 2007.

While with the Eagles, Spagnuolo coached players, including Brian Dawkins, Bobby Taylor, Troy Vincent, Lito Sheppard, Michael Lewis and Jeremiah Trotter, to Pro Bowl berths in six of his eight seasons with the team. From 1999-2005, the Eagles ranked first in the NFL in third-down defense (33 percent), second in points allowed (17.0 per game), second in quarterback sacks (265), and third in red zone defense (43 percent).

From 1999-2005, the Eagles played in four NFC Championship games and one Super Bowl. In 2001, the Philadelphia defense did not allow more than 21 points in 16 regular-season games, only the fourth time in NFL history that feat has been accomplished.

In 2007, Spagnuolo's first season with the Giants, the New York defense rose from 25th in 2006 to seventh in 2007 in the NFL in yards allowed, an improvement of 37 yards per game. The Giants were in the NFL's top 10 in eight statistical categories and led the league for the first time in 10 seasons with 53 quarterback sacks. Defensive end Osi Umenyiora led the Giants with 13.0 sacks en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

Spagnuolo's defense followed a strong performance in 2007 by improving from seventh in yards allowed to fifth in 2008. The Giants allowed only 95.8 rushing yards per game, ninth in the NFL, and 196.2 passing yards per game, eighth in the NFL. The Giants allowed 18.4 points per game, fifth in the NFL and the team's 42 sacks ranked sixth in the NFL. Defensive end Justin Tuck paced the Giants' defense with 12 sacks, earning the first Pro Bowl berth of his career.

A native of Whitinsville, Mass., Spagnuolo is a member of the Grafton (Mass.) High School Athletic Hall of Fame. Steve earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College and a Master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts. Steve is married to wife, Maria.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RICHARD CURL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ QUARTERBACKS

College: Richmond
NFL Coaching Year: 7
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Richard Curl came to the Rams with an abundance of coaching experience at the high school, college and pro levels, most recently with the Kansas City Chiefs.

A former University of Richmond quarterback (1958-62) who began his coaching career on the high school level in 1962, Curl was assistant to Chiefs' head coach Herm Edwards in 2006 and assistant head coach/quarterbacks in 2007-08. Curl also worked with the Chiefs as a pro personnel assistant from 2000-02.

Curl's first NFL coaching position was as tight ends coach with the New York Jets in 2003. He was senior offensive assistant/special projects in 2004 and assistant to the head coach/running backs coach in 2005.

Prior to the NFL, Curl spent nine seasons coaching in the NFL Europe League. From 1998-2000, Curl was head coach of the Frankfurt Galaxy. The Galaxy made two World Bowl appearances and won the NFL Europe title in 1999. Curl was named the league's Coach of the Year in 1998 and 1999, the only coach in NFL Europe history to win the honor in consecutive seasons.

Curl was offensive coordinator for the Barcelona Dragons from 1991-97. The Dragons made World Bowl appearances in 1991 and 1997, winning the NFL Europe title in 1997. Under Curl's guidance QB Jon Kitna led an offense that averaged 360.2 yards per game that season.

Curl spent 30 years coaching in the high school and college ranks before arriving in NFL Europe. Curl made his collegiate debut at Trenton State in New Jersey in 1973 as receivers coach and was head coach in 1974. He also served at Rutgers University (1975-80, 1983-89), the University of Virginia (1981-82) and Boston College (1990).

A native of Chester, Pa., Curl was a high school coach for 11 years, beginning in 1962 as head coach of Lee Davis High School in Mechanicsville, Va. Curl also coached at Shamokin High in Pennsylvania (1963-65), Cherry Hill (N.J.) East (1968-73) and at John F. Kennedy (1965-68) in Willingboro, N.J. Curl is a member of the Chester High School Hall of Fame and the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Delaware County Chapter).

Curl is married to Beverly. The couple has three daughters, Debbie, Karen and Susan, who are all married, and 11 grandchildren.

KEN FLAJOLE — DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Pacific Lutheran
NFL Coaching Year: 12
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Ken Flajole (FLAY-juhl) joined the Rams in 2009 after six seasons as linebackers coach for the Carolina Panthers.

The Panthers' linebacker corps proved to be a strength of the defense. Flajole has been credited with the development of linebacker Jon Beason, who was runner-up in voting for NFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2007 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in 2008 after leading the team in tackles for the second consecutive season with 159 stops.

In 2006, Flajole's linebacker corps featured Thomas Davis in his first season as a starter and lost starting middle linebacker Dan Morgan in the first game of the regular season. Flajole inserted current Rams linebacker Chris Draft into the starting lineup and the Panthers continued to perform at a high level, finishing seventh in the NFL in yards allowed.

Dan Morgan and Mark Fields, were named to the Pro Bowl in 2004 and in 2003 Carolina advanced to the Super Bowl, in which Morgan set a team record with 25 tackles against the New England Patriots. Flajole also guided current Rams linebacker Will Witherspoon, who made 114 tackles in 2003.

Flajole coached four seasons (1999-2002) with the Seattle Seahawks, leading the defensive backs in 1999 and 2001-02 and linebackers in 2000. In 1999, Flajole's secondary led the NFL with 30 interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns.

Flajole made his NFL coaching debut in 1998 as a defensive assistant for the Green Bay Packers. Flajole spent the previous 21 years coaching in the college ranks.

Flajole's coaching debut was at his alma mater, Pacific Lutheran in 1977. He then moved to Washington (1979), Montana (1980-85), Texas-El Paso (1986-88), Missouri (1989-93), Richmond (1994) and Hawaii (1995). He held defensive coordinator positions at Montana and Richmond and was Nevada's co-defensive coordinator/secondary coach for two seasons (1996-97). The Wolf Pack's defense finished first in the Big West Conference in total defense, scoring defense and passing defense in 1997.

An All-Conference linebacker at Wenatchee Valley Community College in central Washington and at Pacific Lutheran, Flajole earned a bachelor's degree in education from Pacific Lutheran in 1976. A native of Seattle, Flajole is married to Teri and the couple has two daughters, Kelly and Kori.

PAT SHURMUR — OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Michigan State
NFL Coaching Year: 11
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Pat Shurmur joined the Rams after seven seasons as quarterbacks coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Eagles quarterback Donovan McNabb earned three of his five Pro Bowl berths during Shurmur's tenure. McNabb finished among the top 10 in the NFL in attempts (571, fourth), completions (345, fifth), yards (3,916, seventh) and touchdowns (23, eighth) in 2008. His 345 completions and 3,916 passing yards set Eagles single-season records.

In 2004, Shurmur guided McNabb to the most productive season of his career, in which McNabb established franchise records in passer rating (104.7) and completion percentage (64.0). McNabb also became the first quarterback in NFL history to have a season with 30-plus touchdown passes (31) and fewer than 10 interceptions (eight).

In 2002, Shurmur's first season as quarterbacks coach, McNabb and quarterback Koy Detmer suffered injuries late in the season. Shurmur turned to No. 3 quarterback A.J. Feeley, who had not started a game in three years, since his junior season at Oregon. The Eagles went 4-1, won the NFC East and advanced to the NFC Championship game. Shurmur faced another quarterback injury in 2006, when McNabb sustained a knee injury, and backup Jeff Garcia took the helm. Garcia closed the regular season with a 5-1 record and led the Eagles into the second round of the playoffs.

Shurmur came to the Eagles in 1999 as tight ends coach. Eagles tight end Chad Lewis earned three consecutive Pro Bowl invitations from 1999-2001.

Shurmur spent the 1998 season at Stanford University as offensive line coach. The Cardinal offensive line allowed the fewest sacks per pass attempt in the Pac-10 and, in the process, helped first-year quarterback Todd Husak become only the third quarterback in Stanford history to throw for more than 3,000 yards.

Pat coached tight ends, special teams, and assisted with the offensive line at Michigan State from 1990-97. Shurmur pupils Ty Hallock, Duane Young and Mitch Lyons went on to play tight end in the NFL and kick returner Derrick Mason established a school-record 2,575 career return yards.

Shurmur played guard and linebacker as a freshman and started at center the next three seasons, earning four letters and All-Big Ten conference honors and All-America honorable mention in 1987 at Michigan State. Shurmur co-captained a Spartans squad that defeated USC in the Rose Bowl. He earned a master's degree in financial administration and was the first graduate student football player at the university.

A product of Divine Child High School in Dearborn, Mich., Shurmur comes from a football background. His uncle, the late Fritz Shurmur, coached for the Rams from 1982-90 and served as the Green Bay Packers defensive coordinator from 1994-98 and helped that club win two NFC Championships and Super Bowl XXXI against the New England Patriots.

Pat and his wife, Jennifer, have four children, daughters Allyson, Erica and Claire, and son Kyle.

TOM McMAHON — SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

College: Carroll College (Mont.)
NFL Coaching Year: 3
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Tom McMahon is in his first season with the Rams as special teams coordinator after spending 2007-08 as assistant special teams coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

McMahon was instrumental in the development of kick returner Jerious Norwood, whose 2,628 kickoff return yards are third-most in the NFL over the last two seasons. Norwood's 1,317 kickoff return yards in 2007 rank second in Falcons history and his 1,311 yards in 2008 rank third.

McMahon spent one season with the University of Louisville in 2006, coaching outside linebackers and special teams. Under McMahon's guidance, kicker Art Carmody was a first-team All-Big East Conference selection and earned the Lou Groza Award, given to the nation's top kicker. Carmody connected on 21 of 25 field goals attempts, including all five field goals attempted from 40 or more yards.

McMahon joined Louisville after 11 seasons at Utah State, including eight seasons as a full-time assistant. His eight-year tenure at the school was the fourth-longest in Utah State history. McMahon served as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 2001-05 after coaching linebackers and special teams from 1998-2000. McMahon joined Utah State in 1995 as a graduate assistant, coaching defensive ends. One of McMahon's players, Ben Crosland, was named Big West Defensive Player of the Year in 1997.

A native of Helena, Mont., McMahon made his coaching debut at his alma mater, Carroll College in Helena. After concluding his four-year playing career, McMahon served as the school's secondary coach in 1992. After a one-year stint at Bozeman High School in 1993, McMahon returned to coach the secondary at Carroll College in 1994.

McMahon is married to Kim and the couple has three children, Dawson, Emmett and Quincy. McMahon holds a bachelor's degree in Math and Secondary Education from Carroll College and a master's degree in Secondary Education from Utah State.

CHARLIE BAGGETT

WIDE RECEIVERS

College: Michigan State
NFL Coaching Year: 11
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Charlie Baggett is in his first season with the Rams as wide receivers coach. Baggett brought 32 years of coaching experience to the Rams, including 10 seasons as an NFL assistant. He has coached nine 1,000-yard receivers in the NFL.

Baggett joined the Rams from the University of Washington, where he coached wide receivers from 2007-08. Baggett was associate head coach/offense and wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins from 2005-06. Dolphins WR Chris Chambers recorded the most productive season of his career in 2005, catching 82 passes for 1,118 yards and 11 touchdowns and becoming the first Dolphins wide receiver to be named to the Pro Bowl since Irving Fryar in 1994.

Baggett was wide receivers coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2000-04, coaching future Hall of Famers Cris Carter and Randy Moss. In the first four seasons of Baggett's tenure, Moss had 376 receptions for 5,649 yards and 49 touchdowns, all of which ranked in the top three in the NFL. Carter caught 169 passes before retiring after the 2001 season. Carter (2000) and Moss (2000, 2002-03) earned four Pro Bowl invitations.

Baggett came to the Vikings following the 1999 season at Green Bay, where Packers receivers Antonio Freeman and Bill Schroeder each surpassed 1,000 yards and combined for 148 catches.

Baggett was associate head coach/wide receivers coach at his alma mater, Michigan State University, from 1995-98, his second stint at the school, having also served the Spartans from 1983-92 as wide receivers coach (1983-84, 1986-87, 1990-92) and as running backs coach (1985, 1988-89). In 14 seasons and two tenures at Michigan State, Baggett guided such future NFL players as Andre Rison, Mark Ingram, Plaxico Burress, Lorenzo White, Muhsin Muhammad, Daryl Turner, Derrick Mason, and Courtney Hawkins.

Baggett made his NFL coaching debut with the Houston Oilers, tutoring receivers from 1993-94. In his first season with the team, Oilers receivers Haywood Jefferies and Webster Slaughter were named to the Pro Bowl.

Baggett began his collegiate playing career at the University of North Carolina in 1971 before transferring to Michigan State, where he started at quarterback for three seasons (1973-75). Baggett was with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL in 1976 before beginning his coaching career, overseeing wide receivers and running backs at Bowling Green in 1977. Baggett moved on to coach wide receivers at the University of Minnesota from 1981-82.

A native of Fayetteville, N.C., and graduate of E.E. Smith High, alma mater of several college and NFL standouts, Baggett and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Camille.

SYLVESTER CROOM — RUNNING BACKS

College: Alabama
NFL Coaching Year: 18
Rams Coaching Year: 1

A veteran of 17 seasons as an NFL assistant, Sylvester Croom is in his first season as running backs coach with the Rams. Croom comes to the Rams after five seasons as head coach at Mississippi State University.

Croom was named the first African-American head coach in Southeastern Football Conference history when he took the job at Mississippi State in 2004. Croom took over a Bulldog program that had suffered three straight losing seasons and was under NCAA probation and helped lead Mississippi State to a 7-5 record, including a victory in the Liberty Bowl, in 2007. That season, Croom was named SEC Coach of the Year.

Croom spent three seasons (2001-03) as running backs coach with the Green Bay Packers. Under Croom's tutelage, Ahman Green made three consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl (2001-03) and recorded three straight 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

Croom served as offensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions from 1997-2000. In 1997, Croom's offense ranked second in the NFL and Hall of Fame running back Barry Sanders led the league in rushing and became the third player in NFL history to surpass 2,000 yards rushing. Wide receivers Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton each had 1,000-yard receiving seasons and Moore's 104 receptions led the NFL. The Lions were the first team in NFL history to have teammates lead the league in rushing and receiving in the same season.

In 1998, Sanders ran for almost 1,500 yards and Morton recorded his second consecutive 1,000-yard season. In 1999, Morton and Germain Crowell combined for almost 2,500 receiving yards and tight end David Sloan was named to the Pro Bowl.

Croom coached running backs for the San Diego Chargers from 1992-96, a run of success in which the Charges won two AFC West titles and made the playoffs three times. The Chargers were the AFC representatives in Super Bowl XXIX in 1994. Croom-coached Natrone Means set a team rushing record with 1,350 yards in 1994.

Croom came to the NFL for a four-year tenure as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1987. He held the same position with the Indianapolis Colts in 1991.

Croom's career impact goes far beyond the NFL. His historic appointment at Mississippi State was preceded by another important step at the University of Alabama. Croom joined the Crimson Tide in 1971, the year after Wilbur Jackson and John Mitchell integrated the football team. A native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Croom earned three letters, became the starting center for legendary coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's 1973 National Champions, and was the hub of teams that posted a 22-2 record in Croom's last two seasons.

Croom was a Kodak All-American in 1974, played for the New Orleans Saints in 1975, and then spent the next 11 seasons coaching at his alma mater. Croom was a graduate assistant in 1976, working with centers. He also coached inside linebackers (1977-81, 1984-86) and outside linebackers (1982-83). Alabama went to 10 postseason bowl games and Croom-coached E.J. Junior (1981), Mike Pitts (1983), Cornelius Bennett (1987), and Derrick Thomas (1989) became NFL first-round draft choices.

The "Sylvester Croom Commitment to Excellence Award" annually is given to an Alabama player at the end of spring practice.

Croom is married to Jeri and the couple has a daughter, Jennifer.

DEFENSIVE BACKS/SAFETIES

College: Virginia Military Institute
NFL Coaching Year: 4
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Andre Curtis joined the Rams in 2009 as defensive backs/safeties coach after three seasons with the New York Giants as defensive quality control coach. The Giants' defense ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense in 2007 and was fifth in total defense in 2008.

Curtis was defensive ends coach at Georgia Southern University from 2004-05. Curtis coached at his alma mater, Virginia Military Institute, from 2000-03. He coached outside linebackers from 2000-01 and linebackers from 2002-03. While on the VMI staff, Curtis worked in the New York Jets' training camp in 2002 and in 2003 was with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a part of the NFL's minority internship program.

Curtis was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at VMI from 1996-99. He started 31 consecutive games and finished his career with 354 tackles. Curtis earned first-team All-Southern Conference honors in 1998.

Curtis is a native of Beaverdam, Va. He has a bachelor's degree in economics and business from VMI and is married to Erica with a son, Andre, Jr.

BRENDAN DALY

DEFENSIVE LINE

College: Drake
NFL Coaching Year: 4
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Brendan Daly came to the Rams from the Minnesota Vikings where he was a defensive assistant/defensive line coach from 2006-08.

During Daly's tenure in Minnesota, the Vikings became the first team in NFL history to lead the league in rushing defense in three consecutive seasons (2006-08) and held opponents to less than 75 yards rushing per game in each of those seasons. Daly helped three Vikings defensive linemen to seven Pro Bowl selections in the last three seasons (Jared Allen, 2008; Kevin Williams, 2006-08; Pat Williams, 2006-08).

Prior to working with the Vikings, Daly coached defensive linemen at Villanova University in 2005, his second stint at the school after coaching tight ends for the Wildcats in 1999. Under Daly's supervision, defensive end Darrell Adams earned first-team All-Atlantic 10 Conference honors in 2005.

Daly coached tight ends at Illinois State University in 2004. The Redbirds led the Gateway Conference in passing offense and posted 480 yards in a non-conference game versus Minnesota that season.

Daly spent three seasons at Oklahoma State from 2001-03, beginning his time there as a graduate assistant working on offense and defense (2001-02) and then served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cowboys in 2003. While at Oklahoma State, Daly served on a staff that brought the Cowboys from a 4-7 record in 2001 to bowl berths in 2001 and 2002.

Daly, a tight end at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, from 1993-96, made his coaching debut in 1997 at Ridgeway High School in New Port Richey, Fla., before returning to his alma mater to coach in 1998. In 1999, Daly coached tight ends at Villanova before serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Maryland in 2000.

Daly, a Springfield, Ill., native, holds a bachelor's degree in history from Drake and is married to Keely. The couple has a son, Liam, and a daughter, Ciara.

CHUCK FAUCETTE — ASSISTANT STRENGTH

College: Maryland
NFL Coaching Year: 2
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Chuck Faucette is in his second season as assistant strength coach with the Rams after making his NFL debut with the team in 2008.

Faucette came to the Rams after spending one season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas (2007), his second stint at the school after coaching at Texas from 1999-2000 in the same capacity.

Faucette spent six seasons (2001-06) as head strength and conditioning coach at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Faucette started at SMU after his first stint at the University of Texas. From 1995-98, he served as the boys' athletic director and head football coach at St. Pius X High School in Houston, Texas. He led his team to a 10-3 record and a state runner-up finish in 1998.

Chuck was out of football from 1993-94, attending graduate school in San Diego.

From 1990-92, he coached the linebackers and served as head strength coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League.

Faucette started his coaching career as the head football coach at Crawford High School in San Diego in 1989.

Faucette was a four-year starter at linebacker for Maryland from 1983-86 and was part of teams that won three consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championships. Faucette was drafted by the New York Giants in 1987 and played for the San Diego Chargers from 1987-88.

He also spent two years as an outfielder in the Toronto Blue Jays minor league system after being drafted by the team as a senior in high school.

Faucette and his wife, Peggy Ann, have four daughters, Jenna, Juliann, Javoni and Jade.

PAUL FERRARO

LINEBACKERS

College: Springfield College (Mass.)
NFL Coaching Year: 5
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Paul Ferraro serves as linebackers coach for the Rams following three seasons (2006-08) as special teams coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings. In his three seasons with Minnesota, Ferraro's units produced an NFC Special Teams Player of the Week three times: twice by K Ryan Longwell and once by KR Aundrae Allison. The Vikings scored a pair of punt return touchdowns, a kickoff return touchdown, scored a touchdown off a fake field goal, and returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown. The Vikings' punting unit helped the team with field position by posting 86 kicks that pinned opponents inside their own 20-yard line, tied for the third-most in the NFL since 2006.

Ferraro was special teams assistant/assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Carolina Panthers in 2005, his first NFL position. That year, the Panthers notched a pair of upset road wins en route to the NFC Championship game, topping the New York Giants and Chicago Bears on their home fields.

Before coming to the NFL, Ferraro spent 23 years coaching at the collegiate level. From 2001-04, Ferraro was the defensive coordinator at Rutgers. The 2004 Scarlet Knights led the Big East in sacks, takeaways and third-down defense.

Ferraro coached defensive backs at Georgia Tech from 1999-2000. Yellow Jackets Travares Tillman and Jeremy Muyres earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors under Ferraro's tutelage and Tillman became a second-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills. Tech was invited to the Gator Bowl in 1999 and the Peach Bowl in 2000.

Ferraro began his coaching career at Massachusetts as a graduate assistant in 1982, then moved on to Syracuse (1983), Villanova (1984-86) and Dartmouth (1987). Paul was named assistant head coach/assistant athletic director at Catholic University in Washington D.C., in 1988 before moving to Maine in 1989. He helped the Black Bears win the Yankee Conference title and advance to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Following a stint at Ohio University as linebackers coach in 1990, Ferraro became defensive coordinator at Bowling Green in 1991. Over the next eight seasons, 12 of Ferraro's position players earned All-Mid American Conference selections and linebacker Vince Palko was MAC Defensive Player of the Year in 1993 and 1994. Bowling Green was undefeated in conference play in 1991 and 1992 and defeated Fresno State in the Raisin Bowl and Nevada in the Las Vegas Bowl.

As a collegian, Ferraro played safety at Springfield College, earning All-New England honors as a senior. A native of Ridgewood, N.J., Ferraro earned a bachelor's degree in 1982 and a master's degree from Syracuse in 1986.

ROCK GULLICKSON

STRENGTH

College: Moorhead State (Minn.)
NFL Coaching Year: 10
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Rock Gullickson is in his first season as strength coach for the Rams after occupying a similar position with the Green Bay Packers since 2006.

Gullickson was named the NFL's Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2007 by a vote of the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society and he was presented with the 2000 Society President's Award for lifetime achievement as voted on by members.

Soon after his arrival in Green Bay, Gullickson helped restructure the Packers' weight room, adding new free weight equipment and adjusting the layout of the conditioning area. Rock followed a similar template when he was at Montana State, designing a weight room facility that was a feature of the football program that won the 1984 national collegiate Division I-AA championship.

Gullickson made his NFL coaching debut in 2000 with the New Orleans Saints, serving as strength and conditioning coach through the 2005 season.

Before joining the Saints, Gullickson spent 22 years as a collegiate coach. His last collegiate stop was at the University of Louisville from 1998-99.

Gullickson served as strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas from 1993-97, working with future NFL players, including Ricky Williams, Priest Holmes and Casey Hampton.

Rock joined the Longhorns after stints at Rutgers (1990-92) and Montana State (1982-89). At Montana State, Gullickson became the first full-time strength and conditioning coach in the history of the Big Sky Conference.

In 1981, Gullickson was named strength coach and weight room instructor at South Dakota State, where he received his master's degree. Gullickson spent two seasons (1979-80) at Mayville State in Mayville, N.D., where he was an assistant football coach, head track and field coach, and strength coach.

A graduate of Moorhead State, Minnesota, Gullickson made his coaching debut at his alma mater as strength coach in 1978. Gullickson was a three-year starter at guard and team captain for the Dragons, earning All-Northern Sun Conference recognition and was an Associated Press Division III All-American in 1977.

Rock is named after Rocky Marciano, the heavyweight boxing champion in 1955, the year Gullickson was born. Gullickson did not pursue a career in boxing but won the state of Montana power weight lifting championship four consecutive years (1983-86). A native of Moorhead, Minn., Gullickson is married to Terry. He enjoys Harley-Davidson motorcycles and in an 18-hour stretch in 2000 rode from New Orleans to Tucumcari, N.M., a total of 1,030 miles to earn membership in the Iron Butt Club.

College: Michigan State
NFL Coaching Year: 2
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Matt House joined the Rams as defensive quality control coach. House spent last season, his first in the NFL, with the Carolina Panthers as special teams assistant/assistant strength and conditioning coach.

House came to the Panthers after two seasons with the University of Buffalo (2006-07). House served as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator for head coach Turner Gill's Mid-American Conference East Division Co-Champions. In House's first season with Buffalo, Kendric Hawkins was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-American team. In 2007, House helped freshman safety Davonte Shannon earn first-team All-Conference honors and second-team freshman All-America honors.

House was defensive line coach at Gardner-Webb College in Boiling Springs, N.C., in 2005. House helped develop defensive end Brian Johnston who was drafted in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

House served two seasons (2003-04) at the University of North Carolina, coaching as a defensive assistant with defensive backs. In 2004, the Tar Heels made an appearance in the Continental Tire Bowl.

House began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Michigan State, in 2001. House worked with defensive backs and special teams and was part of a Spartans staff that helped lead the team to an appearance in the Silicon Valley Bowl in 2002.

A native of Harrison, Mich., House played football in high school. Matt and his wife, Jessi, have two sons, Jackson and Jacob.

FRANK LEONARD — TIGHT ENDS

College: Central Connecticut State
NFL Coaching Year: 1
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Frank Leonard, a 24-year college coaching veteran, is making his NFL coaching debut as tight ends coach for the Rams. He was a special assignment scout for the New England Patriots from 2004-06. Leonard most recently was tight ends coach at Kansas State in 2007-08.

Frank joined the Patriots' staff after 10 years at the University of Richmond, where he coached the offensive line (1994, 1997-2003), running backs (1995-96) and served as the school's recruiting coordinator (2003).

In 1998, the Spiders posted a 9-3 record and earned their first Atlantic 10 title, a berth in the NCAA I-AA playoffs, and a No. 5 final national ranking. The Spiders earned a second Atlantic 10 title and a No. 6 national ranking in 2000 after posting a 10-3 record, rushing for a school-record 3,669 yards and reaching the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs.

Leonard coached at the University of Connecticut (1990-93), Western Connecticut (1982-84, 1987-90), and at Central Connecticut State (1985-86).

Leonard is a graduate of Central Connecticut State, where he earned bachelor's and master's degrees and played football for three seasons. Leonard played free safety for the semi-pro New England Crusaders in 1981.

STEVE LONEY

OFFENSIVE LINE

College: Iowa State
NFL Coaching Year: 8
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Steve Loney is in his second season as offensive line coach for the Rams. In 2008, Loney's blockers helped RB Steven Jackson average 118.4 scrimmage yards per game, best in the NFL. The 45 sacks given up by the Rams were the fewest allowed by the team since 2003.

Loney joined the Rams in 2008 after one season as interim head coach at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. Prior to Drake, Loney completed a five-year stint in the NFL, 2006 as offensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals and 2002-05 as a member of the Minnesota Vikings staff, coaching the offensive line from 2002-05 and adding offensive coordinator duties in 2005. The Vikings led the NFL in rushing in 2002, led the NFL in total offense in 2003 and in 2004 set a franchise record for yardage while QB Daunte Culpepper broke virtually every Vikings' passing record and posted the fourth-best passer rating in NFL history.

Loney enjoyed three coaching stints at his alma mater Iowa State, first as a graduate assistant in 1974 and as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach from 1995-97 and 2000-01. Loney's offense spearheaded back-to-back bowl seasons in 2000 and 2001. In 2000, the Cyclones averaged 424.4 yards per game, the third-best total in school history. Heisman Trophy finalist Troy Davis in 1995 and '96 became the only tailback in national collegiate history to rush for a pair of 2,000-yard seasons.

Loney was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota from 1998-99. The Golden Gophers were second in the Big Ten Conference and 11th in the nation in rushing offense in '99.

Loney was assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Connecticut in 1994 and made his NFL coaching debut as an assistant offensive line coach for the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993.

Loney coached 25 years at the high school and college levels. After his coaching debut at Iowa State in 1974, Loney moved to Missouri Western from 1975-76. He was head coach at Leavenworth High School in Kansas from 1977-78 then went to Morehead State University from 1979-83, serving as head coach the final three seasons. Loney also coached at The Citadel (1984-86) and Colorado State (1989-92).

A letterwinner on the offensive line for Iowa State in 1973, Loney earned his bachelor's degree in distributed studies and his master's degree in secondary school administration at the school.

Steve and his wife, Terri, a former collegiate golf coach at Colorado State, have three children; Matt, a lawyer in Atlanta, Ga.; Katie and Kylan. They also have five grandchildren. Kylan was an All-Pac-10 Conference honoree and four-year starter on the Arizona State women's basketball team and was named a recipient of the 2005 Pac-10 Medal of Honor.

CLAYTON LOPEZ

DEFENSIVE BACKS/ CORNERBACKS

College: Nevada
NFL Coaching Year: 11
Rams Coaching Year: 1

Clayton Lopez is in his first year as the Rams' defensive backs/cornerbacks coach after spending the last three seasons with the Detroit Lions. Lopez coached defensive backs for the Lions from 2006-07 and was assistant secondary coach in 2008.

Before joining the Lions, Lopez coached defensive backs for the Oakland Raiders from 2004-05, working with Pro Bowlers Charles Woodson and Ray Buchanan as well as emerging star Nnamdi Asomugha. In Lopez's two-year tenure with the Raiders, the team's pass defense improved from 30th to 18th, tied for the fourth-highest improvement in NFL team rankings in 2005. Their improvement of 42.6 yards per game in pass defense also was fourth in the league.

Lopez made his NFL coaching debut with Seattle in 1999, serving as defensive assistant/quality control from 1999-2001, then moved to assistant secondary coach (2002-03). In Lopez's five seasons with the Seahawks, the defense recorded 96 interceptions and 433 passes defensed, both of which ranked sixth in the NFL during that span. While with the Seahawks, Lopez oversaw the development of defensive backs Shawn Springs, Marcus Trufant, Ken Hamlin and Ken Lucas.

Clayton's first coaching job came at his alma mater, the University of Nevada, where he was a graduate assistant from 1995-96 and served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-98.

As a defensive back at Nevada, Lopez helped the Wolf Pack to three conference titles from 1991-94. Lopez earned his master's degree in counseling and education in 1999 and his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1995.

Lopez, a Los Angeles native, lettered in football, basketball and track at Serra High in Gardena, Calif.

ART VALERO — ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

College: Boise State
NFL Coaching Year: 8
Rams Coaching Year: 2

Art Valero is in his second season with the Rams, and first as assistant offensive line coach. Valero brings 22 seasons of experience as an offensive line coach to his new position.

In 2008, Valero was assistant head coach/running backs coach for the Rams, helping Steven Jackson average an NFL-best 118.4 scrimmage yards per game. Jackson rushed for 1,042 yards in only 12 games as he became just the second back in Rams history (Eric Dickerson, 1983-86) to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

Valero spent six seasons (2002-07) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Valero coached running backs from 2004-07 and added the assistant head coach title in his final two seasons. Valero coached tight ends for the Bucs for two seasons (2002-03) and helped Tampa Bay to the Super Bowl XXXVII title after the 2002 season.

In 2007, under Valero's watch, Tampa Bay rushed for 1,872 yards, the most rushing yards for the Bucs since 2000. With injuries to Carnell Williams, Mike Alstott and Michael Pittman, Valero helped guide RB Earnest Graham to the best season of his career, leading the team with 898 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns despite sitting out the final two regular season games.

In 2005, Valero coached rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, who set a Buccaneer rookie record rushing for 1,178 yards and was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Valero joined Tampa Bay after four seasons (1998-2001) as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at the University of Louisville. During Valero's tenure, the Cardinals boasted one of the nation's top offensive attacks, ranking first nationally in total offense in 1998, averaging nearly 560 yards per game. Before heading to Louisville, Valero spent three seasons (1995-97) at Utah State as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach.

Art was assistant head coach/offensive line coach at the University of Idaho from 1990-94, adding offensive coordinator duties in 1994. During Valero's tenure, the Vandals posted a combined record of 44-18, and made four appearances in the national collegiate Division I-AA playoffs.

Valero began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boise State, in 1981-82 and also made coaching stops at New Mexico (1987-89), Long Beach State (1984-86) and Iowa State (1983) all as offensive line coach.

A native of La Mirada, Calif., Valero was a two-time letterwinner along the offensive line at Boise State from 1979-80. He played on the 1980 NCAA Division I-AA national championship squad. Valero graduated in 1981 with a degree in psychology and sociology.

Valero and his wife, Alicia, have five children: sons, Kyle, who is an offensive assistant at Florida State, and Brandon, and daughters, Kimberly, Alexa and Cami.

TONY SOFTLI

VICE PRESIDENT/ PLAYER PERSONNEL

College: Washington
NFL Year: 14
Rams Year: 4

Tony Softli supervises the Rams college scouting staff and is responsible for managing and evaluating all information that results in player investigation and rating for the Rams' draft of college players. Softli joined the Rams in 2006 after serving the Carolina Panthers for 11 years. A former football player and coach at the University of Washington, Softli worked in scouting for the Panthers from the origination of the franchise in 1995. He was Director of College Scouting before joining the Rams, and held that post for six years.

The Panthers' drafts were among the most productive in the NFL. Under Softli's supervision the Panthers acquired such Pro Bowl players as Julius Peppers, Steve Smith, Dan Morgan, Kris Jenkins, Jordan Gross, and others like DeAngelo Williams, Chris Gamble, Brad Hoover, Thomas Davis, Richard Marshall, Travelle Wharton, Geoff Hangartner, and several others who helped the Panthers reach Super Bowl XXXVIII after the 2003 season and the continued success Carolina is presently achieving.

While coordinating and supervising the Rams drafts in 2007 and 2008, Softli helped acquire starters Adam Carriker, Chris Long, Clifton Ryan, Donnie Avery, Keenan Burton and special teams standouts Derek Stanley, Chris Chamberlain, Quinton Culberson, Jonathan Wade and David Vobora. As one of Billy Devaney's chief evaluators, Softli's input helped the Rams in the 2009 draft, acquiring Jason Smith, James Laurinaitis and Bradley Fletcher in the first three rounds, and several others with promising NFL careers, while building a rock-solid foundation for the future.

Tony joined the Panthers as a regional scout in 1995 after four years at the University of Washington, where Tony was a graduate assistant coach. The Huskies won the National Championship in 1991, Pac-10 titles in 1991 and '92, and made consecutive appearances in the Rose Bowl in 1992 and '93. Softli worked in minor league football, serving as head coach and general manager of Britain's Blackpool Falcons in 1990 and head coach and director of player personnel for the Seattle Cavaliers from 1988-89. A linebacker at Washington, Softli was a member of the Huskies team that won the 1979 Sun Bowl. He played six seasons in minor league football with the Seattle Cavaliers from 1980-82 and Eastside Express from 1983-85. Tony earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Washington.

Softli is currently serving on the NFL College Advisory Committee (CAC) and the National Football Scouting (NFS) Executive Committee. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation of the College Hall of Fame, St. Louis chapter.

Softli is a graduate of Newport High in Bellevue, Wash., where he played fullback and was All-League and All-King County in track and field with a best of 59 feet, 11 inches in the shot put. A native of Seattle, Tony and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Alexis and Indigo.

MIKE WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR/ PRO PERSONNEL

College: Santa Clara
NFL Year: 10
Rams Year: 1

Mike Williams is in his first season as Director of Pro Personnel for the Rams, joining the team after nine seasons with the San Francisco 49ers.

In his role with the Rams, Williams manages the pro scouting department and oversees the Rams' evaluation of all professional leagues and available free agents. He also manages the club's advance scouting efforts of upcoming opponents and helps evaluate and manage the Rams' current roster. Williams is the first person to hold the title of Director of Pro Personnel with the Rams since 2000.

Williams spent the past nine seasons (2000-08) with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last four seasons (2005-08) as Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. As Assistant Director of Pro Personnel, Williams' responsibilities included advance scouting, evaluating free agents, setting up free agent workouts and tracking NFL rosters and depth charts. Williams joined the 49ers in 1999 as a volunteer in the personnel department and became a full-time personnel assistant in 2000.

Williams was the defensive coordinator at De Anza College in Cupertino, Calif., in 1998 and served one season as linebackers coach at Southern Utah University in 1997. Prior to working at Southern Utah, Williams was defensive coordinator at St. Lawrence High School in Santa Clara, Calif.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Santa Clara in 1989, where he was a four-year starter at safety for the Broncos.

A native of Santa Ana, Calif., Williams attended Mater Dei High School where he played football and basketball and participated in track. He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Emily Angeline.

RAY AGNEW — SCOUT

College: North Carolina State
NFL Year: 20

From 2004-09, Casani served as a commercial real estate broker in Los Angeles, Calif. From 1995-2000, he was an assistant football coach at Loyola High School in Los Angeles. From 1997-2000, he served as the director of client services for an internet company in Sherman Oaks, Calif.

Casani walked on as a linebacker at Arizona State in 1993-94, before suffering a career-ending back injury. He transferred to Loyola Marymount in 1995 where he played three years of rugby and set a school record in scoring in 1997 and was named team MVP. He is married to wife Mandy. They reside in Pasadena, Calif.

LUKE DRISCOLL — SCOUT

College: Hastings College (Neb.)
NFL Year: 10
Rams Year: 10

Luke Driscoll, a 10-year veteran of the Rams' scouting department, is in his sixth season as a college scout. Driscoll, who joined the Rams in 2000 in player personnel, is a native of Fort Collins, Colo.

Driscoll graduated from Hastings College in Nebraska with degrees in criminal justice and psychology. He played football and baseball for the Lambkins at Fort Collins High. Luke is single and lives in Chicago, Ill.

JONATHAN GANNON — SCOUT

College: Louisville
NFL Year: 2
Rams Year: 1

Jonathan Gannon enters his first season as a scout for the Rams. He will evaluate prospects in the Midwest and Southeast regions.

In 2007, Gannon served as a defensive quality control coach for the Atlanta Falcons. Prior to Atlanta, he served as defensive graduate assistant at the University of Louisville in 2006, after spending 2003-05 as a student assistant. Gannon played safety for one season for the Cardinals before suffering a career-ending hip injury in 2002.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Gannon started at cornerback and wide receiver for St. Ignatius, as well as hit a pair of game-winning free throws to lead the basketball team to a Division I state title as a senior.

BRAD HOLMES — SCOUT

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL Year: 7
Rams Year: 7

Holmes enters his sixth season in the Rams' scouting department. After originally joining the department as a scouting assistant in 2004, Holmes is in his fourth season as a scout and covers the Northeast region. He previously served as the National Combine Scout, covering the Midwest area. He started in the NFL as a pubic relations intern for the Rams in 2003.

A graduate of North Carolina A&T, Holmes was a four-year letterman for the Aggies, starting at defensive tackle as they won the 1999 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and Black College National Championship. He was also team captain in 2000.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Holmes was named 1997 first-team All-County and All-Conference at defensive tackle for Chamberlain High.

Brad's father, Mel Holmes, played guard for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1971-73. Holmes is single and lives in St. Louis.

STEVE KAZOR — SCOUT

College: Westminster College
NFL Year: 18
Rams Year: 3

Steve Kazor enters his third year in the Rams scouting department in 2008, after spending 2006 with the CFL's Ottawa Renegades as the offensive line coach.

Kazor has had head coaching posts at College of DuPage (2004-05), Wayne State University (2000-03), McPherson College (1998-99) and Iowa Wesleyan (1993). From 1994-96, he coached the tight ends, offensive line and special teams for the Detroit Lions.

For 11 seasons (1982-92), Kazor worked with the Chicago Bears as special teams coach, defensive assistant, tight ends coach and assistant to head coach Mike Ditka. In 1980, Kazor signed on with the Dallas Cowboys where he served as administrative assistant to the vice president Gil Brandt and head coach Tom Landry.

Prior to his first stint in the NFL, he served as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at the Univerisity of Texas at El Paso from 1979-80, and from 1977-78 he was the secondary assistant at the University of Texas at Austin.

In 1976, Kazor was the defensive coordinator at Southern Utah and in 1974, he served as the defensive line coach at the University of Texas at Arlington. Kazor, and his wife, Colleen, have two children, Lance and Kyle.

Patten spent four years as a member of the Houston Texans personnel department scouting the southeastern part of the country. Prior to that, he spent three years with Washington in a similar capacity. Patten was also a part-time Washington scout in 1996.

Patten played eight seasons in the NFL and three years in the USFL as an offensive tackle. He initially signed as an undrafted free agent with the Cleveland Browns in 1980. In his NFL career, Patten played a total of 56 games for the Browns (1980-82), Indianapolis Colts (1987-88), San Diego Chargers (1989-90) and Los Angeles Raiders (1991-92). Patten played all three seasons of the USFL's existence, for the Washington Federals (1983-84) and the Orlando Renegades (1985).

Patten graduated from Duke where he played tight end and was co-captain for the Blue Devils. Son of a career Army man, Patten was born in Augsburg, Germany. He and his wife, Betsy, live in Chantilly, Va. Betsy is an art student at George Mason University. The couple has three children; Kimberly will attend Virginia Tech this fall and hopes to play lacrosse; Christina is a sophomore at Virginia Tech and had a great freshman season playing lacrosse; and Jake graduated from Virginia Tech in May 2007 and now works as an assistant football coach at Duke University.

DEBBIE POLLOM

DIRECTOR/ SCOUTING ADMINISTRATION

College: Evergreen State
NFL Year: 26
Rams Year: 18

Debbie Pollom, in her 18th year with the Rams, was named Director of Scouting Administration prior to the 2001 season. She assists in the day-to-day operation of the college and pro scouting departments, including coordination of the War Room on draft day.

Pollom began her career as a Player Personnel Assistant for the Memphis Showboats of the USFL in 1983. She moved to the Chicago Blitz in 1984 before working for the Cleveland Browns from 1984-89. Pollom was a Pro Scouting Assistant for the New England Patriots (1990-91) and was hired by the Los Angeles Rams as a Player Personnel Assistant in 1992.

Debbie has a bachelor of arts degree from Evergreen State College in Olympia, Wash. She is the daughter of longtime personnel scout Norm Pollom (Los Angeles Rams, Buffalo Bills) and sister of the late Mike Pollom, a scout for the New England Patriots from 1987-2001. Pollom's hobbies include travel and theater. Debbie has one son, Nicholas, who is an actor. She resides in St. Charles, Mo., and likes to golf.

JIM ANDERSON

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

College: Colorado
NFL Year: 26
Rams Year: 26

Now in his 26th season with the Rams, Jim Anderson is one of the most respected athletic trainers in the National Football League.

Jim had the distinction of working for two professional teams in two different leagues in one calendar year in 1984. Anderson was the head athletic trainer for the Oakland Invaders of the USFL, which played in the spring. Jim worked with the Invaders in their 1983 and 1984 seasons, before joining the Rams in Los Angeles for the 1984 NFL campaign.

Anderson is a 1979 graduate of the University of Colorado, where he was a student athletic trainer for the football and baseball squads. Jim served as assistant athletic trainer at the University of Southern California from 1979-82. He began his athletic training career in high school, working summer training camps for the Houston Oilers, who trained near Anderson's home in Huntsville, Texas.

Jim is a past executive committee member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society and currently serves on the NFL Committee for Substances of Abuse and Performance Enhancing Drugs. Anderson is also a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and a member of the American College of Sports Medicine. Jim and his wife Gretchen have three children, twins Danielle and James and younger daughter Sydney and one grandchild. They reside in St. Charles, Mo.

DAKE WALDEN — ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

College: Colorado
NFL Year: 17
Rams Year: 17

Dake Walden enters his 17th season with the Rams as an assistant athletic trainer after serving as a member of the Stanford University athletic training staff from 1982-93 where he was involved in the health care of numerous Pac-10 and National Championship teams.

Walden's responsibilities with the Rams include assisting with the health care of Rams coaches and staff members as well as the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries incurred by Rams players. He is also involved in the overall daily management of the athletic training room and is instrumental in the accumulation and organization of collegiate players' medical history information leading up to the NFL Draft.

Walden earned a master's degree in Education from Stanford and received a bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado.

Walden serves on various committees of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He, his wife, Cynthia, and daughter, Ashley, reside in Wildwood, Mo.

JAMES LOMAX — ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

College: Central Methodist College
NFL Year: 7
Rams Year: 7

Lomax is in his fifth season as an assistant athletic trainer for the Rams after serving two years as a full-season intern (2003-05). Lomax was one of the athletic trainers for NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy, which earned a World Bowl berth in 2004.

Lomax grew up in High Ridge, Mo., attending Northwest High of House Springs, Mo. He earned his undergraduate degree in athletic training in 2000 at Central Methodist University in Fayette, Mo., and completed his master's degree in Teaching in 2003 at Lindenwood University in St. Charles, Mo.

James, his wife, Sarah, and daughter, Lucy, reside in St. Peters, Mo.

TYLER WILLIAMS — SEASONAL ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

College: Truman State
NFL Year: 3
Rams Year: 3

Tyler Williams is in his third year as seasonal assistant athletic trainer for the Rams, after spending three years as an athletic training intern.

Williams served as assistant athletic trainer at Fontbonne University in St. Louis from 2006-07.

He earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science emphasizing athletic training from Truman State University and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He is also a member and personal trainer of the American Council on Exercise. He and his wife Katie live in Ballwin, Mo.

LARRY CLERICO

DIRECTOR/ VIDEO OPERATIONS

College: UCLA
NFL Year: 19
Rams Year: 19

Larry Clerico is in his 19th season with the Rams, his 15th as director. "Rico" joined the Rams in 1992 as assistant video director and was moved to his current position in 1995, the Rams' first season in St. Louis.

Clerico was film manager for the UCLA athletic department from 1984-90. Larry was a member of the UCLA men's crew team and was honored as the most inspirational athlete by his teammates in 1986. Larry graduated in 1990 with a degree in economics.

A native of Bakersfield, Calif., Larry is married to Jennifer. The couple has a son, Anthony, and two daughters, Olivia and Isabella. They reside in Ellisville, Mo.

TED CREWS

SENIOR DIRECTOR/ COMMUNICATIONS

College: South Carolina State
NFL Year: 12
Rams Year: 1

Ted Crews is in his 12th season in the NFL and his first season as the Rams' Senior Director of Communications. Crews, who joined the Rams in March 2009, oversees the team's Communications department. In his role, Crews leads the Rams' communications and media relations efforts, working closely with local and national media that cover the team and the NFL. He is the primary media contact for Rams' ownership, Head Coach Steve Spagnuolo and General Manager Billy Devaney on all football matters.

Crews joined the Rams after four seasons with the Atlanta Falcons as Football Communications Manager. With the Falcons, Crews formulated the weekly media schedule for the department and provided media support for General Manager Thomas Dimitroff, Head Coach Mike Smith, quarterback Matt Ryan, other members of the coaching staff and players.

Prior to joining Atlanta in 2005, Crews served five seasons (2000-04) as Media Relations Assistant for the Carolina Panthers after spending two seasons (1998-99) as a departmental intern for the club. While in Carolina, Crews was the primary contact for members of the media, facilitating interaction between local and national media with Panthers players and coaches.

On four separate occasions (2005-07, 2009), Crews was selected by the NFL to direct publicity for the Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii, coordinating all media and public relations for the NFC squad each year. Crews also served as the Falcons public relations representative in New York City for the 2008 NFL Draft, handling all local and national media requests for No. 3-overall selection Matt Ryan.

A 1999 graduate of South Carolina State University, Crews is married to the former Michelle Willis. The couple has two children – a son, Tesdell Jacob IV and a daughter, Olivia Celeste.

TODD HEWITT

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

College: California - Riverside
NFL Year: 32
Rams Year: 32

The 2009 season will be the 43rd for Todd Hewitt with the Rams. Todd's career with the Rams started in 1967, when at age 11 he began helping his father, Don Hewitt.

Todd, who officially joined the Rams in 1978 and became equipment manager in 1986, graduated from the University of California at Riverside with a degree in business administration in 1978. Hewitt was the starting third baseman on the 1977 UC-Riverside baseball team that won the national collegiate Division II title.

Hewitt currently serves on the NFL Competition Committee for equipment safety and testing of new products and materials.

Born in Pasadena, Calif., Todd is married to Kathy, and resides in Ballwin, Mo., with sons Travis, a quarterback at Arkansas State University; Joshua and Dalton, and daughter Megan.

STEVE MILLER

DIRECTOR/ SECURITY

College: Missouri - St. Louis
NFL Year: 1
Rams Year: 1

Steve Miller is entering his first season with the Rams as Director of Security after consulting with the organization on security related travel issues for the past eight years.

Miller spent 18 years in law enforcement, mostly with the St. Louis Airport Police Department, where he last commanded their Intelligence Division. During his tenure, Miller was recognized by numerous agencies such as the Missouri State Highway Patrol, the United States Secret Service, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Department of State, for his invaluable service.

Miller is a resident of the City of St. Louis and has two daughters, Maggie and Nikki.

RAY OGAS

PLAYER PROGRAMS

College: San Diego State
NFL Year: 10
Rams Year: 10

Ray Ogas is in his 10th season with the Rams, assisting players with the transition to professional football and other responsibilities.

In his 30-plus years as a college coach, Ogas worked for such respected NFL names as Dick Vermeil, Don Coryell, Jim Hanifan, Jim Fassel, Rod Dowhower, and others. As a player in four seasons at Fullerton College in Southern California and at San Diego State, Ogas was a starting offensive lineman on teams that posted a record of 44-0-2.

Ray has coached at San Diego State, UCLA, Hawaii, Boise State, Eastern Illinois, San Jose State, and at community colleges in Southern California. He also worked with New York Giants coaches in the 1999 preseason and joined the Rams in 2000 as a special teams assistant coach.

Ogas lives in St. Charles, Mo., and has a daughter, Laurae.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

RAMS CONTINUE OFF THE FIELD COMMITTMENT

—Rams take strategic approach to sports philanthropy in order to provide greatest impact to the community—

Since 1995, the St. Louis Rams have set the standard for professional sports franchises off the field — by harnessing the power of sports. The Rams community outreach team supports programs designed to engage youth in activities that promote good health, fitness and citizenship. Since moving to the Gateway City, the organization has donated more than $6 million in cash, grants, merchandise and tickets to area charities.

In addition to financial contributions, the team works to integrate all of its unique resources including player participation, media exposure and strategic alliances between charities and team partners. The Rams believe this comprehensive approach provides its charitable partners with the most beneficial relationship possible.

As such, the team's philanthropic philosophy is guided by three principles:

Be Proactive: The Rams are dedicated to being innovative, forward thinkers.
Be Impactful: By leveraging the influence of professional athletes and the strength of the NFL, the Rams play a significant role in improving the lives of area youth.
Be Collaborative: Through strategic partnerships with area organizations, the Rams have proven to be an effective catalyst for change.

The following overview provides a glimpse of what the team is doing to make the bi-state area a better place. For a more comprehensive look at the organization's off the field efforts, please visit www.stlouisrams.com/community.

CORNERSTONE PROGRAMS

In order to provide the greatest impact to the bi-state area, the Rams focus the majority of its resources on the following cornerstone programs, designed to engage youth in activities that promote health, fitness and character development.

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

Diversity Awareness Partnership

An organization with a long tradition of embracing diversity, the Rams were the first professional sports team in the modern era to sign an African-American player — even before Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball. Years later, the team remains committed to promoting diversity and inclusion. After helping launch the Diversity Awareness Partnership (DAP) in 2000, the Rams have continued to unite over 100 organizations in the effort to reduce bias and discrimination, and promote the value of difference among the people of St. Louis. An example of this collaboration is the Edward Jones Give Respect — Get Respect Youth Program that has engaged middle and high school students, teachers and members of today's workforce in this pursuit of inclusion and acceptance. For more information, visit www.dapstl.org.

CHARACTERplus

The St. Louis Rams in partnership with CHARACTERplus® have supported the development and expansion of important initiatives that help school communities build consensus around the values and character traits that should be integrated into the culture and curricula of the school. The programmatic initiatives include the St. Louis Rams Huddle-Up micro web site and the Huddle-Up advisory board. This year, the Rams will sponsor the Missouri Schools of Character Awards program as well as the development of a Rams Caring Community School at Patrick Henry Elementary.

CHARACTERplus®, a project of Cooperating School District, works to advance the cause of character education and sustain its impact on the lives of educators and students by: designing, promoting and facilitating processes and best practices; serving educators and enhancing their commitment to character education; actively recruiting and developing community support; and continually evaluating the impact of programs and services.

HEALTH AND FITNESS

Rams Fitness First Club

The Rams Fitness First Club allows youth the opportunity to earn tickets to Rams home games by putting "fitness first" and pledging to be active and make healthy choices. The Rams Fitness First Club is an extension of Play 60, an initiative of the NFL, which focuses on the health and wellness of young fans by encouraging them to be active daily for at least 60 minutes. The process for being selected as a Rams Fitness First Club member begins with a pledge to Play 60 minutes a day and requires a plan on how the pledge will be put into action. Those who are selected receive a unique game day experience that includes a certificate acknowledging their pledge, a Rams Play 60 t-shirt to wear to the game and a Rams rally item.

Healthy Youth Partnership (HYP)

The Healthy Youth Partnership (HYP) is a collaborative of more than 75 community organizations from diverse sectors, which were brought together by the Rams Foundation and the Greater St. Louis Community Foundation to combat youth obesity and advance the health of children and youth in the bi-state region. Together, they have implemented a set of pilot programs, shared best practices to improve current programming and built a network of resources to foster a regional commitment to health outcomes for the area's children. For more information, visit www.healthyyouthpartnership.org.

St. Louis Public Schools Rams Fitness Team

The Rams and St. Louis Public Schools have collaborated to create the Rams Fitness Team, a program implemented in the St. Louis City schools that includes football instruction through the inclusion of flag football and NFL Punt, Pass and Kick clinics as a part of the curricula. Through a collaborative arrangement with the Healthy Youth Partnership, professional development opportunities are provided to all physical education teachers. The Rams Fitness Team also recognizes the importance of physical education teachers in today's schools through the Physical Education Teacher of the Year program.

Youth Football

The Rams have joined with the NFL to identify opportunities to enhance, promote and recognize positive aspects of football at every level. The team, with support from the local chapter of the National Football Foundation and USA Football, has led the way in promoting amateur football and youth development, sportsmanship and academic excellence. As a part of these efforts, the Rams host the St. Louis Rams/USA Football Youth Coaching School. Additional efforts include saluting the accomplishments of local high school coaches through the High School Coach of the Week program, providing free tackle football camps to area middle school athletes through the Rams Junior Player Development Program and offering pre-collegiate football and life skills instruction through the NFL High School Player Development Program/7 on 7 Tournament. The Rams have also partnered with PHL, Inc. and the NFL Grassroots Football Fields grant program to refurbish and maintain St. Louis Public School athletic fields. Financially, the Rams have committed more than $450,000 to provide safe and accessible football fields in the bi-state area.

NOTES

NOTES

The NFL's St. Louis Rams are dedicated to providing St. Louis the most entertaining sports experience possible while striving to conduct itself in an environmentally sustainable and socially responsible manner. The Rams Green Platform was formed in December 2007 to serve as an umbrella for all new and existing initiatives supporting our environmental sustainability efforts.

For the St. Louis Rams 2009 Media Guide, the organization has taken the following steps:

- Printed the media guide on 100 percent post consumer waste paper.
- Printed with soy ink, made from environmentally friendly soy beans.
- Used Pure Power renewable energy during the publication process.
- Certified this publication with the FSC (Forest Stewardship Council), an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Paper used to print this publication comes from FSC-certified forests, meaning that the forest is managed to high standards covering social, environmental and economic issues. The wood from these forests has been traced through all stages of processing and distribution.
- Reduced the media guide by more than 250 pages, placing the removed information at www.stlouisrams.com/media.
